Mk. 10:17-31

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

As he was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before Jesus, and asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: ‘You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honour your father and mother.’” He said to him, “Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.” Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, “You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.” When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions. Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!” And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.” They were greatly astounded and said to one another, “Then who can be saved?” Jesus looked at them and said, “For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.” Peter began to say to him, “Look, we have left everything and followed you.” Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age — houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields with persecutions — and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.”

Sentence

There is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for Jesus' sake, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life.

Mark 10.29-30

Prayer of the Day

Merciful God,

in your Son you call not the righteous
but sinners to repentance:

draw us away from the easy road that leads to destruction,
and guide us into paths that lead to life abundant,
that in seeking your truth, and obeying your will,
we may know the joy of being a disciple of Jesus our Saviour;
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Job 23:1-9, 16-17

A reading from the book of Job

Job said: "Today also my complaint is bitter; his hand is heavy despite my groaning. Oh, that I knew where I might find him, that I might come even to his dwelling! I would lay my case before him, and fill my mouth with arguments. I would learn what he would answer me, and understand what he would say to me. Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power? No; but he would give heed to me. There an upright person could reason with him, and I should be acquitted forever by my judge. "If I go forward, he is not there; or backward, I cannot perceive him; on the left he hides, and I cannot behold him; I turn to the right, but I cannot see him. God has made my heart faint; the Almighty has terrified me; if only I could vanish in darkness, and thick darkness would cover my face!

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalms 22:1-15 — A.P.B.A. Page 241

- 1 My God my God why have | you for | saken me:
why are you so far from helping me
and from the | words | of my | groaning?
- 2 My God I cry to you day by day but you | do not | answer:
and by night | also . I | take no | rest.
- 3 But you con | tinue | holy:
you that | are the | praise of | Israel.

- 4 In you our | forbears | trusted:
they | trusted . and | you de | livered them;
- 5 To you they cried and | they were | saved:
they put their trust in you | and were | not con | founded.
- 6 But as for me I am a worm and | no | man:
the scorn of | all . and de | spised . by the | people.
- 7 Those that see me | laugh me . to | scorn:
they shoot out their lips at me
and | wag their | heads | saying,
- 8 'He trusted in the Lord | let him . de | liver him:
let him de | liver him . if | he de | lights in him.'
- 9 But you are he that took me | out of . the | womb:
that brought me to lie at | peace . on my | mother's | breast.
- 10 On you have I been cast | since my | birth:
you are my God | even . from my | mother's | womb.
- 11 O go not from me for trouble is | hard at | hand:
and | there is | none to | help.
- 12 Many | oxen . sur | round me:
fat bulls of Bashan close me | in on | every | side.
- 13 They gape | wide their | mouths at me:
like | lions . that | roar and | rend.
- 14 I am poured out like water,
and all my bones are | out of | joint:
my heart within my | breast . is like | melting | wax.
- 15 My mouth is dried | up . like a | potsherd:
and my | tongue | clings . to my | gums.

Second Reading

Heb. 4:12-16

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

The word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account. Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathise with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.
