Volunteer of the Week – Bryce

This week we are delighted to recognise Bryce as our Volunteer of the Week. Since the very beginning of the Community Meal, Bryce has faithfully arrived each week to set up the chairs, helping transform the space so that our community can gather, share a meal, and feel welcome. While it may seem like a simple task, his reliability and commitment have played

We thank Bryce this week for his consistent help and commitment to the Community Meal since the very beginning.

ST JUDE'S VOLUNTEER OF THE WEEK

an important role in making the Community Meal possible week after week. This Friday will be Bryce's last week with us as he begins an exciting new job. We are incredibly grateful for the time and effort he has given to St Jude's and wish him every success and blessing in this next chapter. Thank you, Bryce! 🙌

ACCVS Volunteer Needed

Could you become the newest friend of an older person? St Jude's Volunteer Visitors are currently seeking: an outgoing, young at heart lady to visit a lady at Murray Mudge, Glenelg, and a friendly gent who enjoys a walk in the garden, a coffee and a chat to visit a gentleman at Alwyndor. If you have an hour or a little more free each fortnight you could really brighten someone's days, and enrich your own.

If you would like to know more please contact me by mobile on 0411 731 532, or via email at fieldkaren19sj@gmail.com

Many thanks,

Karen Field

Greening of the Cross

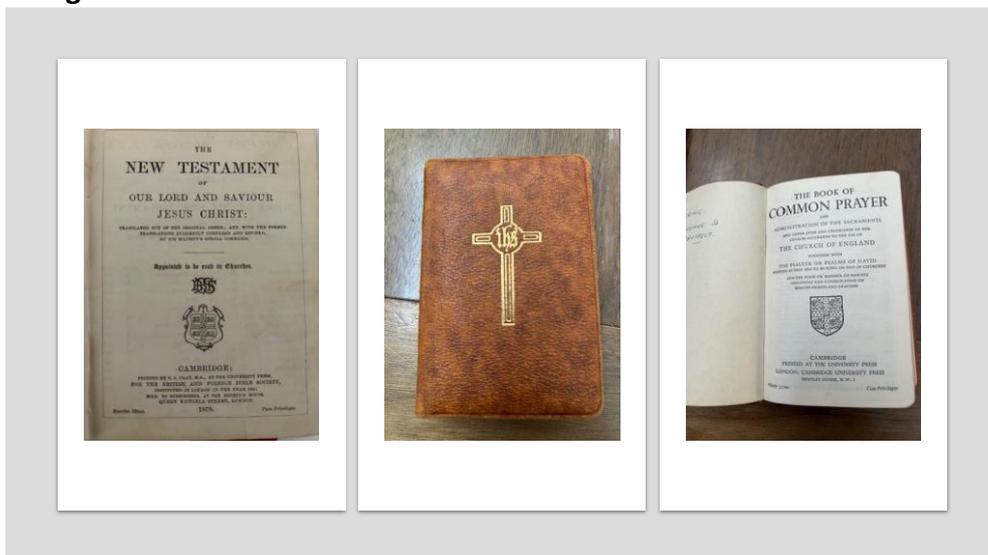

Are you able to help bring greenery for our Easter Cross? If so, please leave at the church on Good Friday or Saturday morning 4th April.

Hazel Inkely's Ashes Interment

On Friday 20th March, following the 10.30am service we will have an interment of ashes for Hazel. All are welcome to attend.

Image of the week – from Pauline Glover

Look what Pauline came across this when cleaning and clearing. It must be about 60 years old from what she can gather. The picture is the payer book that is still in its original box. Unfortunately the book is undated. She did also however find a New Testament dated 1878! Pauline will bring these relics next Sunday if anyone would like to see them.

Prayer for the Parish

O Gracious Father, whose loving providence has brought us into the sacred Fellowship of this Parish; help us we beseech Thee to worship Thee with such Holy worship to serve Thee wick such unselfish love, and to give generously for the spread of Thy Kingdom, that we may be worthy members of Thy Holy Catholic Church, and that our parish may faithfully fulfil its mission to make known Thy truth and to convey Thy life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Accommodation needed

We are looking for safe accommodation for a mum and toddler daughter until 20th March – if anyone has a granny flat or similar they can offer please speak with Andrea.

St Judes Fete/Fair survey

Hi lovely people of St Judes. I have started to collate the responses to the fete/fair survey and to date I only have 22 responses. Some of you took the survey home on Sunday with a promise to bring it back next Sunday. Just a gentle reminder to put in the box at the back of the church on the table. If you don't have a survey form please take one and complete. This is your event and we need to know what you want. This has come from Parish Council and I am just the person who is collating the responses and preparing a preliminary discussion paper. Look forward to being inundated with responses!

Thank you

Pauline Glover

Joy: Lenten Studies 2026 - There are still lots of books available. You are welcome to take one for study/reading at home if you would like.

Joy Lenten Studies 2026 provides a study of joy, helping us to navigate the Lenten period of penitence and preparation for Easter. Christians ought to be people of joy. Joy because we are grounded in gospel grace, in Christ, in an assured destiny with God. Joy, because through Christian joy, others may be attracted to our glorious God.

The daily readings cover Joy from God, his presence, creation and redemption in the Old Testament. Joy specifically in the Psalms. Joy amid suffering from various New Testament readings. Joy in the Letter to the Philippians, over two weeks, and covering the whole letter. We recognise not every passage in Philippians speaks of joy, but joy permeates the letter and provides its essential context, as Paul writes from prison. Finally, Holy Week picks up Jesus' final night speaking with the disciples on the theme of joy, and looking ahead to the vision of the Book of Revelation for its climactic joy.

Palm Crosses working bee

Join us on Friday 13th March at 1.30pm at St Jude's for a Palm Cross working bee, following our Lenten studies and the community meal. We'll be preparing palm crosses for Palm Sunday, and all are warmly invited to come along and lend a hand — the more the merrier! If you have any palm leaves we could use, they would be greatly appreciated.
