Volunteer of the Week: Chris Mayne

This week we are delighted to recognise Chris Mayne as our Volunteer of the Week. Although Chris is relatively new to the St Jude's community, he has already made a significant contribution through his handyman skills and willingness to help. He has taken on the ongoing battle against the weeds around our grounds, no small task, and has also painted the foyer of Father's Hall, giving the space a fresh new look. Chris is currently working on improvements to the Grundy Hall porch area, continuing to enhance our facilities for everyone who uses them. We are incredibly grateful for his hard work, generosity, and practical expertise. Thank you, Chris, for all that you are doing to help make St Jude's an even more welcoming place.

This week we thank Chris Mayne for helping keep St Jude's looking welcoming, one project at a time.
